DE LAMAR DOTS.

The well drill of the DeLamar Company was started Tuesday afternoon. In the train feet. The drill is expected to make fifty feet a day when working in ordinary soil or rock. If such progress can be made here this phase of the water question for Ferguson District will not be long in doubt. There are many who doubt the probability of securing flowing water, but if it can be done, other wells will follow and a fine body of land can be brought under cultivation.

The DeLamar Co. is apparently not relying aleogether on its well drilling machine for a water supply, as examinations and surveys on the Meadow Valley Wash side are being made.

The hills about DeLamar are steeper than supposed. The Jim Crow office is found to the death of Prince Rudolf a complete be over 1600 feet above the well site, where | mental wrock, subject to most pathetic of the effication would not exceed 800 feet.

John and Tom McMahon have their hands full in supplying water to the town and the mines. The hot weather creates a rushing business for them.

With the water question fairly settled, our town would take on a different aspect in a very short time. As it is now, things are moving fairly well, all is being done that can be done under the circumstances and when the final move is entered upon it will be sure to tell.

County politics are being considerably discussed. The movement to organize the Silver Party meets with a hearty response

The movement to organize with the Sifver party of Nevada for the coming election has met with a ready response from both Republicans and Democrats and a call for a public meeting will be found in another column in this issue. The call itself is signed by both Republicans and Demo-

County Assessor H. E. Freudenthal returned from a two months assessing trip in the south, last Monday. He took a run over the A. & P. roal to the Milwester Fair while away, and barely succeeded in getting out before the railroad tie-up. As it was, the train he left the city on was tied-up by telegraphic orders at the next station it reached after he left it.

The called meeting of the People's Party for last Saturday evening was attended by all members but one: There were present, Geo. S. Sawyer, C. H. Patchen, John Vietti, J. J. Manning, W. Culverwell, Saml. Reed by H. J. Goodrich proxy; J H. Wheatley by H. W. Turner proxy, J. R. Hoag by T. E. Edwards proxy. Provison for a primary election and county convention for the nomination of county offices were made, the official call for which will be found in another column of this

As the nomination of County officers is mentioned, the question of electing County Commissioners is discussed with some interest on account of the acknowledged responsibility of the position. The last legislature enacted a law providing that on netition to the Board of Commissioners, a county might be divided into districts, and a commissioner elected from each. Such a petition however should be filed at the July meeting, which being now passed, prevents any action here for this election. However the main interests of the county are in the northern part, and for the pres ent, a distribution as in previous years, will

The Strike.

Though the telegraphic dispatches generally indicate an end to the great railroad strike, trains are not yet moving with any regularity on any of the western roads. In Chicago and vicinity passenger trains are moving regularly, but the freight traffic has not entirely recovered in volume. This was brought about by the interference of U.S. troops. On the Southern Pacific system we known, despite the dispatches. that service has not been resumed. Troops are obliged to accompany every train sent out. One train was ditched last week within two miles of Sacramento, and the engineer and several soldiers killed. Culverts and bridges are destroyed in many places and the utmost efforts of the railroad officials are required to move a train or two a day. The main trouble now is at Sacramento and Oakland, and vicinity. In southern and northern California, traffic has generally resumed. The latest mail received here from the west is that of June 28th.

after drying is said to be 13 feet 6 inches; but it must be noted that skins expand considerably in the curing. The greatest length of a skin undressed is given as 10 feet 214 inches. That goes far toward confirming what we have said as to the finest of these latter day tigers falling far short of their predecessors. Mr. Inglis ("Maori"), whom we consider a most trustworthy authority, discusses the matter at length in his books on Indian wild sports. And he quotes examples, within the experiences of a hunting companion of his own, of various animals killed in upper Bengal which measured from 12 feet to 12 feet 7 inches.-London Saturday Review.

A Clever Reply from a Cracker.

A big passenger train full of northern people was temporarily halted in a dreary sand plain where the only object was a "smart Aleck," who thought that he would have some fun with the cracker. So he put his head out of the window and called out, "My friend, this appears to be a pretty fine country you

"I reckon," replied the native without looking up, "How much of a population have you in this town?" continued the smart Aleck as he winked at his friends in the car. "Waal," replied the cracker, "bout 10,000. I reckon, and nary a fool among them. We did send for one last week as a specimen, but derned ef we thought he'd come so soon."--New York

Some fisherfolk the other day captured in Yerik bay, on the Don, a sturgeon weighing 72 poods, or about 2,600 pounds English The fish was taken, singularly enough, in an ordinary net and without damage to the meshes. A sturgeon of this size will give about 10 poods of caviare, having a marketable value of 1,000 rubles.

S. P. SMITH, of Towarda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's arsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of San aparilla to be the best in the market to-day."
